Kamran Safiarian was born in Teheran (Iran), and studied journalism, political science and social psychology in Munich and Paris. He worked for RTL and the BBC in London, and he has been a reporter for German public TV (ZDF) since 1995, later contributing to its news magazine “heute journal” and its cultural program ”Kulturzeit.” While working for ZDF, he has done many reports from Iran, Afghanistan, Israel, Jordan and Turkey. In 2007, he became the anchor of “Forum am Freitag”, a program about Islam and Integration in Germany, and Safiarian also made a documentary about pilgrimage to Mecca in 2007. Kamran Safiarian is the author of the book Pulverfass Iran — Wohin treibt der Gottesstaat? (Powder Keg Iran – A Theocracy Going Where?, Herder Verlag, 2011).
